Every case of birth which shall occur after the first day of January, 1877, in the City of Baltimore, shall be reported to the Commissioner of Health within ten days after the birth has occurred, by the attending physician or midwife, and in case there shall be neither physician nor midwife in attendance, then the householder or owner of the premises where the birth occurred shall report the same within the time aforesaid. Every report of a birth shall state the full name and occupation of its parents, the date and place of birth, and the number of the child of the mother, if born alive, and whether still born or alive at the time the report is made. Every case of still birth shall be reported as a birth and as a death, and a certificate of the still birth shall be given by the physician or midwife in attendance, or by the householder or owner of the premises, as the case may be, which certificate shall state the cause of the still birth, as far as the same can be ascertained. Every midwife who shall attend a birth shall, within ten days after the birth has occurred, report the same to the Commissioner of Health, and shall state in such report the full name and occupation of its parents, the date and place of birth, and the number of the child of the mother, if born alive, and whether still born or alive at the time the report is made. Every case of still birth shall be reported as a birth and as a death, and a certificate of the still birth shall be given by the midwife in attendance, which certificate shall state the cause of the still birth, as far as the same can be ascertained. Every householder or owner of premises who shall fail to report a birth or still birth as herein required, shall be liable to a penalty of ten dollars for each offence, to be recovered as other fines and forfeitures are recoverable.
